EURASIA PLANS TO ACQUIRE THREE EXPLORATION LICENCES ON THE KOLA PENINSULA EXPLORATION RESULTS INDICATE POTENTIALLY COMMERCIAL GRADES OF PLATINUM GROUP METALS

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

I reported in my interim statement that 2004 was to be a year of consolidation for the company, and our progress in line with that objective during the year has left us well placed to exploit the opportunities we believe now offer the best value for our shareholders. Having disposed of our South African interests, we are now clearly focused on projects within Russia, and events since the year-end have already advanced our position significantly.

In Russia, where Eurasia is now focusing its activity, the Government has introduced major changes designed to open up opportunities to a wider range of local and international investors. Whilst we welcome the intent of the changes, these have been accompanied by moratoria on licence renewals and have limited our activities on existing licences. We have used the time when we could not conduct field work on our own projects to conduct field and data reviews on more advanced projects in Russia. In parallel, we have been working on securing future developments through further strategic alliances.

This culminated in the agreement in April 2005 of an important new partnership with AngloGold Ashanti Limited ("AngloGold Ashanti"), the world's second-largest gold producer, which brings us affordable access to potential projects in eastern Siberia, currently one of the world's most promising areas of prospectivity for hard-rock gold deposits. In the central Urals, where we have continued work on our exploration and development alliance with Anglo Platinum Limited ("Anglo Platinum") we have sharpened our focus of exploration on our joint prospects and applied for new exploration rights further to the north.

Taken together, these developments reflect the continued expansion and strengthening of our activities in both platinum group metals and gold, the latter becoming an important new element in our development strategy for the company.

Kola

Eurasia is continuing with its plan to acquire three exploration licences on the Kola Peninsula in north-west Russia, where early exploration results indicate the presence of potentially commercial grades of platinum group metals (PGMs).

Together, the licences cover a total area of 450 sq km on a geological trend where the Canadian mining groups Barrick Gold and Consolidated Puma Minerals Corporation are carrying out advanced exploration and feasibility studies on nearby deposits. Gold Fields Limited is completing feasibility studies on deposits in similar trends across the border in Finland.

The Company has considered several alternative ways to fund the acquisition as third parties (both Russian and overseas) have expressed interest in participating in the projects. The company will select the best approach and agree to final acquisition terms that will realize the best value for shareholders.

The Urals

The Company continues to work on exploration and development of alluvial projects in the Urals in a 50:50 joint venture with Anglo Platinum, who are contributing 100% of the funding.

Commencement of test mining to include bulk sampling and metallurgical test work planned for this year at West Kytlim has been delayed while we await resolution of administrative issues related to the extended licence. We remain optimistic for a re-commencement of work in the second half of 2005.

Successful geological reconnaissance well north of our current projects has identified several new prospective areas for which licence applications are in preparation.

Also in the Urals, the Company has applied for a new, reduced licence area to cover the drill defined bedrock PGM and gold discoveries at Kluevsky and Baronskoye in the Central Urals. Planned future work will focus on assessment of metallurgical and mining characteristics of potential near surface bulk mineable low grade resources, particularly at Kluevsky.

South Africa

Following the completion of our first stage drilling programme and a careful appraisal of the new minerals legislation, we announced the sale of the Group's PGM mineral interests in South Africa in December 2004. The interests were sold to Nkwe Platinum Limited, for a consideration in cash and shares, details of which can be found in the Financial Statements. A further rationale for this decision was to sharpen the company's focus on Russia, as well as provide additional working capital for expansion of our activities in the Russian Gold sector.

AngloGold Ashanti and other alliances

Eurasia has established an exploration alliance with AngloGold Ashanti Limited, the world's number two gold producer, covering gold and related mineral exploration and possible development projects in eastern Siberia. The alliance combines our country experience and exploration management skills in the region with AngloGold Ashanti's resources.

The Eastern Siberian geological environment, particularly in the vicinity of the intersection of the Siberian and Mongolia/China tectonic plate margins represents one of the best endowed, yet least systematically explored regions of the world for hard rock gold deposits. Historic production in the region was dominated by placer mining of alluvial gold. Since the mid 20th Century a number of large hard rock deposits have been explored and developed. Total resources in these deposits, including previous production and known reserves, stands well in excess of 65 million ounces, or 2,000 tonnes of gold.

The new agreement gives AngloGold Ashanti the exclusive right to participate in projects proposed by Eurasia, which has been appraising potential prospects over a period of 18 months in conjunction with local companies and government in the region. AngloGold Ashanti will pay an entry fee of $100,000 and fund the first $2 million of exploration spending in recognition of Eurasia's work to date. Subsequent spending will be shared equally.

Our objective is to participate in the rapid advancement of a number of projects towards feasibility study. The exploration alliance very considerably extends the range and type of projects in which Eurasia can participate within this highly prospective but increasingly more competitive environment for gold project development. We look forward to early success.

Your company also continues independently to seek projects that will add value to our portfolio by reviewing and potentially bidding for both prospective mineral ground as well as advanced stage projects elsewhere in the country. In this regard the company is working with a Russian partner to jointly acquire advanced gold development and exploration properties.

Board and Management

The company is reorganising the board and will be adding new blood to strengthen our developments in Russia. Following the AGM, Dr Michael Martineau will take over the position of Chairman while I will remain as non-executive director.

Bill Anderson, our Operations director, has decided not to stand for re-election, to allow for the extra operational time he wishes to devote to developing the company's gold strategy, for which he will now take the lead role. Mr Ed Slowey, a geologist with broad experience in exploration, mining and feasibility study management, including at the giant Sukhoi Log gold deposit in Siberia, has been seconded to Eurasia from CSA Group Limited as part of an alliance with this consulting group to supply key personnel in engineering and geology. Ed will manage operations in Russia based out of our office in Ekaterinburg.

Corporate Issues

The company is in the process of consolidating and simplifying the structure of its holding companies in Cyprus. In anticipation of this we have written off the investment in historic gold projects dating from the 1990s and written down, in the company balance sheet, the related intra group indebtedness. The changes are designed to reduce ongoing legal and management time and costs and provide a structure more relevant to our developing activities.

Conclusion

The alliance with AngloGold Ashanti and our joint venture with Anglo Platinum add great substance to our work and strengthen our presence in Russia. The new alliance also recognises the major progress we have made in Russia over the past two years and illustrates the importance of patience and persistence in a vast and well mineralised country.

Finally, I would like to thank the Board and staff for their continuing work and contribution during the year, and also our advisors for their ongoing support. With continuing healthy price projections for both platinum and gold, combined with a steadily improving business environment in Russia, Eurasia is in a strengthened position to capitalize on its investment and maximize the options available to expand its business during 2005.

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and Group and of the profit or loss for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Group and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Directors are responsible for ensuring that the Directors' Report and other information included in the annual report is prepared in accordance with company law in the United Kingdom.

The maintenance and integrity of the Eurasia Mining plc website is the responsibility of the Directors: the work carried out by the auditors does not involve consideration of these matters, and accordingly, the auditors accept no responsibility for any changes that may have occurred to the financial statements since they were initially presented on the website.

Corporate Governance

The Board of Directors

The Directors are responsible for the Group's system of internal control and for reviewing its effectiveness. The risk management process and systems of internal control are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve the Company's objectives. Any such system of internal financial control can only provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

Full meetings are held quarterly to review Group strategy, direction and financial performance. The executive Directors meet regularly to review operational reports from all the Group's areas of operations. The process is used to identify major business risks and evaluate their financial implications and ensure an appropriate control environment. Certain control over expenditure is delegated to on site project managers subject to Board control by means of monthly budgetary reports. Internal financial control procedures include:-

- Preparation and regular review of operating budgets and forecasts
- Prior approval of all capital expenditure
- Review and debate of treasury policy
- Unrestricted access of non-executive Directors to all members of senior management.

The Board, in conjunction with members of the Audit Committee, has reviewed the effectiveness of the system of internal control for the period from 1st January 2004 to the date of this report.

statements and announcements, internal control procedures, accounting procedures, accounting policies, the appointment, independence, objectivity, terms of reference and fees of external auditors and such other related functions as the Board may require.

The membership of the Audit Committee comprises two non-executive Directors, John Mitchell and Gary FitzGerald. The external auditors have direct access to the members of the committee, without presence of the executive Directors, for independent discussions.

Remuneration Committee

The Chairman of the Remuneration Committee is John Mitchell. The committee comprises two non-executive Directors, John Mitchell and Gary FitzGerald. It determines the terms and conditions of employment and annual remuneration of the executive Directors. It consults with the Managing Director, takes into consideration external data and comparative third party remuneration and has access to professional advice outside the Company.

The key policy objectives of the Remuneration Committee in respect of the Company's executive Directors and other senior executives are:-

- a) to ensure that individuals are fairly rewarded for their personal contribution to the Company's overall performance, and
- b) to act as an independent committee ensuring that due regard is given to the interests of the Company's Shareholders and to the financial and commercial health of the Company.

Remuneration of executive Directors comprises basic salary, discretionary bonuses, participation in the Company's Share Option Scheme and other benefits. The Company's remuneration policy with regard to options is to maintain an amount of not more than 10% of the issued share capital in options for the Company's management and employees which may include the issue of new options in line with any new share issues.

Total Directors' emoluments are disclosed in note 6 to the financial statements and the Directors' options are disclosed above. During the year 850,000 options were granted to employees.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 December 2004

1 Accounting policies

Accounting convention and basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards and the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting for Oil and Gas Exploration, Development, Production and Decommissioning Activities (revised June 2001).

The principal accounting policies of the Group are set out below. The policies have remained unchanged from the previous year.

These financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, notwithstanding the loss for the year to 31 December 2004 of £1,471,790 and accumulated losses, which the Directors believe to be appropriate for the following reasons:

In common with many exploration companies, the Company raises finance for its exploration and appraisal activities in discrete tranches to finance its activities for limited periods only. Further funding is raised as and when required.

The Directors are of the opinion that the Company will require to raise additional financial resources to enable the Group to undertake an optimal programme of exploration and appraisal activity over the next twelve months. Accordingly, the Directors intend either to raise further funds or to engage an additional funding partner as appropriate during the course of the next twelve months. Whilst the Directors are confident that the Group will be able to secure additional funding to enable it to continue to meet its debts as they fall due and to undertake the programme described above for at least the next twelve months from the date of approval of these financial statements, there can be no guarantee that this will be the case. The financial statements do not include any adjustments, particularly in respect of tangible fixed assets, stocks, investments, loans and provisions for winding up which would be necessary if the Company and Group ceased to be a going concern.

Basis of consolidation

Details of principal subsidiaries and joint ventures are given in note 10. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared from the financial statements of the Company and all subsidiary undertakings and also include the Group's share of the results of joint ventures. Each company in the Group and each joint venture has prepared financial statements for the period ended 31 December 2004 which have been adjusted where necessary to conform with the Group's accounting policies.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets represent the cost of acquisition by the Group of rights, licences and know how. Such expenditure requires the immediate write-off of exploration and development expenditure that the Directors do not consider to be supported by the existence of commercial reserves.

Exploration and development costs

All costs associated with mineral exploration and investments are capitalised on a project-by-project basis, pending determination of the feasibility of the project. Costs incurred include appropriate technical and administrative expenses but not general overheads. If an exploration project is successful, the related expenditures will be transferred to mining assets and amortised over the estimated life of the commercial ore reserves on a unit of production basis. Where a licence is relinquished or a project abandoned, the related costs are written off. Where the Group maintains an interest in a project, but the value of the project is considered to be impaired, a provision against the relevant capitalised costs will be raised.

The recoverability of all exploration and development costs is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to complete the development of reserves and future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition thereof.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are included at cost less depreciation. Depreciation is calculated to write off office furniture, equipment and vehicles on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives, which range from three to five years.

Investments

Investments are included at cost, less amounts written off.

For the year ended 31 December 2004

Joint ventures

The group financial statements incorporate joint ventures under the gross equity method of accounting, supplemented by additional disclosures.

Taxation

The charge for taxation is based on the profit or loss for the year and takes into account taxation deferred because of timing differences between the treatment of certain items for taxation and accounting purposes.

Deferred tax is recognised, without discounting, in respect of all timing differences between the treatment of certain items for taxation and accounting purposes which have arisen but not reversed by the balance sheet date, except as otherwise required by FRS 19. Deferred tax assets are recognised when it is more likely than not that they will be recovered.

Foreign currencies

The financial statements of overseas subsidiaries are generally translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date with the exception of the year's profit and loss account, which is translated at the average exchange rates for the period of activity.

The exchange differences arising on the retranslation of opening net assets and on the retranslation of the profit and loss account to closing rates of exchange are taken directly to reserves. All other translation differences are taken to the profit and loss account.

Pension schemes

The Group does not operate any pension schemes for the benefit of its employees.

Financial instruments

Financial assets are recognised in the balance sheet at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Provision is made for diminution in value where appropriate.

Income and expenditure on financial instruments is recognised on the accruals basis and credited to the profit and loss account in the financial period to which it relates.

2 Operating environment and risks

The Company's operations are located principally in Russia. It is considered appropriate and prudent to draw attention to the broad range of economic and political uncertainties that affect the investment and operating environment in this country and which could potentially adversely affect the Company's business. At the same time, it should be emphasised that Russia has developed economic and legal infrastructures, including developed mining industries.

For accounting purposes, such exchange gains and losses are also recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Loss per share is calculated by reference to the loss for the year of £1,471,790 (2003: £609,465) and the weighted average number of Shares in issue during the year of 84,388,766 (2003: 60,476,830). There is no dilutive effect of share options or warrants.

Disposals stated above represent the disposal of certain exploration interests and include a non-cash disposal of £105,584 as part exchange for the Group's share in the joint venture described below in note (b). 15 Financial instruments

The Group is at an early stage of development and has yet to commence commercial production. Two risks which the Group encounters are currency exposure and liquidity risk. Currency exposure is managed as far as is practical by financing the Group's development and exploration activity in hard currency and to match the currency of borrowing to the expected revenue stream. Liquidity risk is managed by tight controls over expenditure. The Board determines, as required, the degree to which it is appropriate to use financial instruments or hedging contracts or techniques to mitigate risks. During the year ended 31 December 2004 the Group has not entered into any hedging or forward exchange rate contracts.

There is no material difference between fair value and book value of financial instruments.

The information below describes the Group's financial instruments. Short-term debtors and creditors are excluded from the numerical disclosures below with the exception of the currency risk disclosures.

(a) Financial assets

As at 31 December 2004 and 31 December 2003 all the Group's financial liabilities, as distinct from short-term creditors such as trade creditors and accruals, were repayable within one year, with the exception of the long-term shareholder loan referred to in note 13.

As at 31 December 2004 there were no undrawn committed facilities.
